

Snapshot: Nursing Education in Oregon

Oregon is home to 29 nursing schools and 36 unique degree programs.

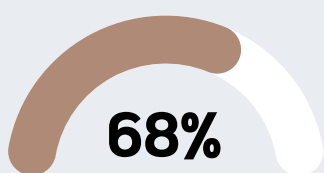

Last year, schools received 9,451 applications statewide, with approximately 7,315 qualified applicants.

How many are qualified applicants?

Of 1,001 LPN program applicants, 924 were qualified.

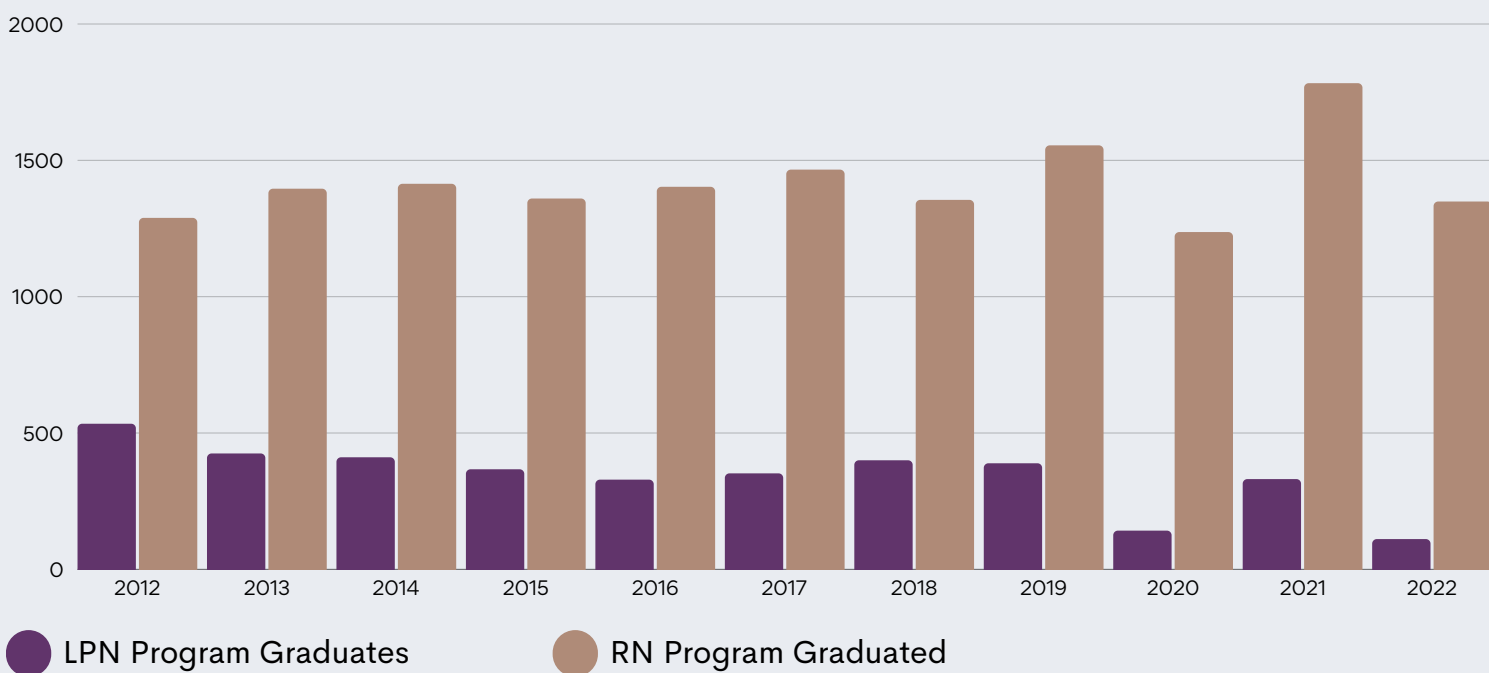

Of 2,988 ADN program applicants, 2,035 were qualified.

Of 5,462 BSN program applicants, 4,356 were qualified.

Nursing Graduates Over Time

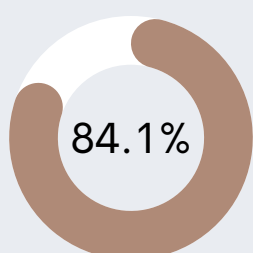

Oregon's Nursing Student Profile

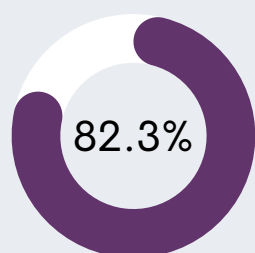

*Based on BSN student population

NCLEX PASS RATES:

Oregon students were ahead of the national average of first-time NCLEX pass rates.

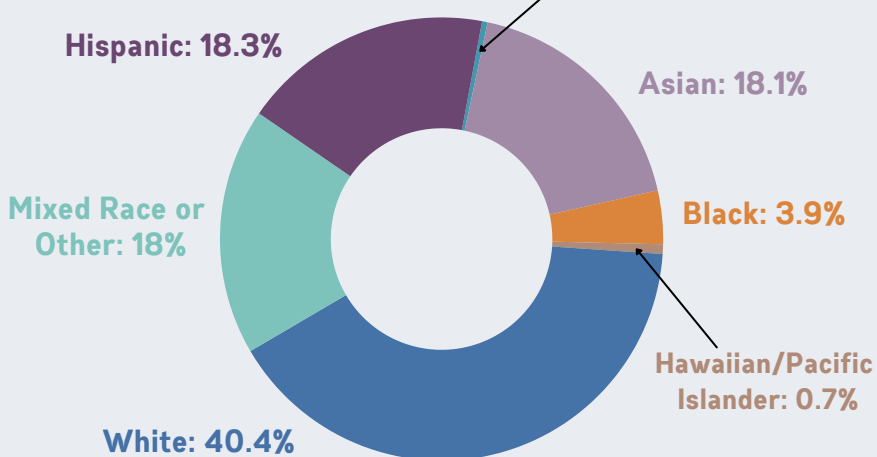

Oregon

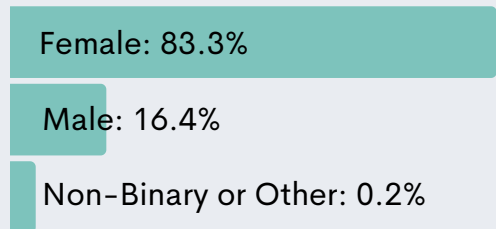

National

RACE AND ETHNICITY:

GENDER:

AGE:

27

The average age of Oregon nursing students enrolled in an BSN program.

This information was compiled and produced by the Oregon Center for Nursing. Sources include the Oregon State Board of Nursing and annual independent reporting/surveys from Oregon nursing education programs.

Infographic © 2023-2024, Oregon Center for Nursing. Use and resharing of this infographic is permitted with appropriate credit. Reproduction is prohibited. Visit oregoncenterfornursing.org for more information.